

WHO WE ARE

Founded in 1995, Road to Recovery is a behavioral health and substance abuse practice providing psychological counseling services in English and Spanish.

Our clinical staff is licensed and certified, culturally/linguistically competent and offer the highest level of professionalism, warmth, empathy, care, and respect. Road to Recovery is the only privately owned minority psychological counseling practice providing services to:

- DeKalb Co. State Court DUI Court Program
- Clayton Co. Solicitor's Office Pre-Trial Diversion and Intervention Program
- Clayton Co. District Attorney's Office Pre-Trial Diversion and Intervention Program
- Gwinnett Co. Department of Family and Children Services
- Barrow Co. Department of Family and Children Services
- Department of Homeland Security
- Department of Justice

Road to Recovery is known for enriching and improving people's lives. Our community involvement and philanthropic efforts reflect the diverse interests of our business with an emphasis on prevention and intervention. Our commitments extend to helping communities, disadvantaged youth and helping women and children who are at risk of domestic abuse.

Most individuals are referred to Road to Recovery by caring attorneys and by officers of the judicial system. Nonetheless, a considerable number of individuals seek help voluntarily.

Road to Recovery does not deny services for inability to pay, instead, we provide flexible payment plans and referrals to appropriate sources for indigent care.
